

Volunteering in our open sewing Studio Kabutze North-East Germany, baltic sea: Greifswald !

We are:

- a non-commercial open sewing studio for everyone
- volunteer-run team of 8 people of different ages and genders
- critical of hierarchies, decide with consensus, no company, we don't sell or produce stuff

What we do:

- open studio: we help visitors with sewing, repairing and upcycling their clothes
- Sewing workshops: tailoring and upcycling with experts
- Upcycling Workshops: with pupils, on street parties, with our cargo-bike with built in pedal-powered sewing machine
- Clothes swap: swap old clothes and save resources
- Talks: on working conditions in the textile industry, gender norms, beauty myths, fair and organic production, capitalism

We need:

YOU for supporting our team! Between 18 and 30 years old, from european countries & neighbour states (balkan, albania, serbia, egypt, marocco, israel, russia...).

* You should be interested in sewing and the social and ecological effects of fashion.

* You should be able to sew.

* Ideally you already have experiences in public relations or organising events.

* We are looking for a person that can work very independent, can solve task by themselves and is interested in finding decision together with our team.

Your tasks could be:

- helping with the opening hours
- supporting the public relations (social media, Website, Newsletter, leaflet spreading)
- Workshops: applications, building up, preparations, documentation
- write instructions/how-tos, make mini-repair workshops
- your own project e.g. organising an event, swap-closet, project with refugees, or something completely different...

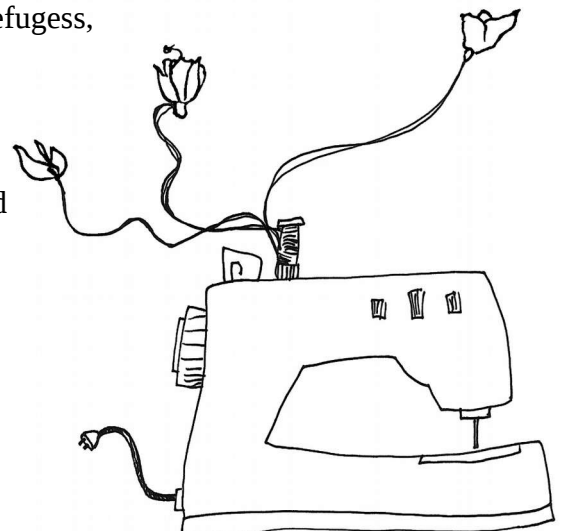

We offer:

- EVS – european voluntary service, 6-12 months
- Travel costs, food, accommodation, pocket money, insurance provided
- help with finding a flat BEGIN: 1.9.2019
- a kind team and a lot to learn
- chilled self-determined workspace and rhythm
- use the studio 24/7 for free
